

Jonathan Cahn: Prophet, Half-Prophet or False Prophet II

Fred R. Coulter—April 29, 2023

Here's a letter from someone concerning Jonathan Cahn:

I just finished reading Jonathan Cahn's book The Return of the Gods and he raises some interesting points, but he is wrong on several things. You can tell he's a Jewish Protestant!

Very interesting, indeed!

I've never really thought the gods of Babylon were demons that took up where Nimrod and Semiramis left off.

That's true, and they're everywhere! Jonathan Cahn says that when Christianity through Constantine came to the world, the gods were sent away. Well, where did they go? A lot of them went to Rome, and went underground secretly to be there!

A good number of them went to Spain, and did you know that there's a sect of people in Spain that believe that Jesus didn't die, and that the disciples stole away the body before He died and took Him to Spain, and that He's somewhere buried in a field out where the cult of the Brotherhood of the Bloods are. If you ever see that on television, watch The Brotherhood of the Bloods. They believe that the body of Jesus is out there somewhere in Spain.

But where did they go? Some of those practices of child-sacrifice and various other things that they did—as Cahn explains in the book here—I think went to Central and South America with the Aztecs and those in Peru and the other sect that goes along with them. They had human sacrifices; lots of human sacrifices!

{continuing letter}: I never thought of Ishtar as being an aggressive harlot huntress and she reminds me of the harlot ruling the conglomerate beast of Revelation.

Cahn also writes in his last chapter that the demons divided the nations and kept them away from God.

Well, that's not true! God separated the nations when He confused the languages. When they went to where they were supposed to go, they were already worshipping Nimrod, Semiramis and Horus, the supposed divine son through Nimrod impregnation!

Many thanks, looking forward to the next message.

Here's another letter that's very interesting, too from

Canada:

My name is Antwan, and I immigrated from the Ukraine at the time of the USSR to Canada. I settled in Winnipeg at the age of 22, I'm now 68! I belong to the Catholic Church, and being Catholic I considered myself rather Christian who loved the Truth and had many unanswered questions from the Holy Scriptures.

It also brings up a question: How many Catholics are out there unhappy with what's going on in the Catholic Church, maybe are reading the Bible. They may be following along with our website and Church At Home. I've done a series of five Church at Home on Satan Out of the Closet! {churchathome.org} Be sure and watch that because that helps explain a lot of things that we're going cover here, too.

After many years of reading the Bible and praying, God led me to Church of God International, and after three or four months God led me to a group of brethren of CBCG. Before my baptism, I affiliated only with CBCG for approximately four years.

Your sermons, teachings and many publications provide me with needed spiritual food for me to grow. God gave me the love of the Truth!

That's essential for conversion! The love of the Truth! We will see that Jonathan Cahn

- does not talk about conversion
- does not talk about baptism
- does not call Jesus the Christ

He uses the name Yeshua or Yahsuha. However, the New Testament was written in Greek not Hebrew!

Paul's decided mission was to keep traditional Judaism out of the Churches of God! That's why he was called, someone so dedicated to the traditions. We'll examine what Jonathan Cahn says in a little bit.

Then he led me to receive and accept the love of the Truth. I was baptized April 6, 2008 by Wayne Stenhouse and Norbert Bohnert. I pray for many things, among them I pray for spiritual discernment and for the understanding of God's teachings, His will and plans. This is why with you personally with your teachings and explanations and with CBCG after almost 20 years of listening to your teachings.

Remember this: What we always need is the Truth, the Truth, the Truth! Very important. Just like Russell Kemp brought out, the teachings and commandments of men can never replace the teachings and commandments of God the Father and Jesus Christ in the Bible. That's very important!

We're going to find out whether Jonathan Cahn is a prophet of God, a half a prophet... Someone asked me, 'How come you say half a prophet?' Because he prophesies certain things, or speaks of certain things that are true, but he doesn't bring the full solution of God! Can you have half the solution of God and solve the problem? No! Christ did not die half a body!

continuing letter: Through your teachings I have learned not to run to a minister with every question I have. You taught me how to find the answer: prayer, study and asking God to help me to find the correct answer.

That's why we have the Holy Bible in Its Original Order, A Faithful Version! When we send that out, we also send Joseph Ackerman's seven-year study going through 27 translations of the New Testament—New Testament Scripture Comparisons. He shows and has it all charted out. What they leave out and what they change. It's amazing what they have done.

My long sort of introduction gives you and idea of who I am. The reason that I'm writing to you is about Jonathan Cahn. I was Jonathan Cahn on three religious channels. I do what you do and flip through channels for several minutes just for the sake of knowing what they are teaching.

1. Sid Roth's Supernatural program

Most of the Protestant ministers fall into the category of half-way ministers or false teachers. One the best of the teaches of the Protestants was Charles Stanley. He died about a week or ten days ago. He was one of the few—though a Sunday-keeper and holiday-keeper—who told people to trust in Christ. Notice that Protestants today very rarely baptize! If you're not baptized for the remission of your sins, do you think you're going to enter the Kingdom of God?

This program is deceiving and Jonathan Cahn was just there and enthusiastically promoting his new book that you talked about on CBCG live stream, April 22, 2023.

2. Jewish Voice—a Messianic program again promoting his book. They use the terminology like Jewish Jesus.

Jesus was from the house of David. He was from the tribe of Judah. So, He was a Jew because of that. But He was not 'Jewish' because Jewish means following the traditions of the Jews! So, what did He do? Mark 7—He rejected them! How many times have we covered that? He said, 'Full well you reject the commandments of God so that you may keep your own traditions!' That becomes important when we look at Jonathan Cahn, as well.

3. On Day Star

4. I also saw on one of his Jewish programs showing his elaborate Passover ceremony.

I would like someone to do a Google search and send it to me Jonathan Cahn Passover service. He said that the things they use are obviously not the Passover. He even mentioned the Cahn—and said he would check it out—had a grapefruit as part of what went on. They do the Seder!

The Jews rarely say that they keep the Passover because God killed the firstborn of the Egyptians. They say they keep the Passover because we left Egypt. Well, the truth is they couldn't leave Egypt until God killed the firstborn of the Egyptians, both man and beast.

We know for sure that Jonathan Cahn keeps a 15th Passover! When did Jesus keep the Passover? On the night of the 14th as the day began! He died at 3pm on the 14th Passover Day.

Sidebar: Many people say, 'Oh, isn't that interesting, that Jesus died at the time that the Jews were killing their Passover lamb for the 15th?' Wrong! When Jesus died, what happened? Three hours before that it was dark—supernatural darkness—then at 3 pm He died the 9th hour and the veil covering the front of the Temple was ripped in two from top to bottom—72 feet long!

It was made of woven linen very thick! The earthquake probably did a lot of damage to the temple area, so there could be no offerings offered when Jesus died! So much for a manmade theory on Jesus and the sacrificial lambs.

Get The Christian Passover book.

Now, let me just encourage you. We don't know how long or when live-streaming or Internet websites—TruthofGod.org, ChurchatHome.org and afaithfulversion.org—will be cutoff. They can do it!

I'm going to bring you next week some astonishing things that are going to happen concerning the mark of the beast, of which many people don't know anything about. It is going to be absolutely breathtaking!

continuing letter: I saw him [Cahn] on one Jewish program showing his elaborate Passover ceremony...

By the way, when he's with the Jews in praise, he covers his head completely with whatever that rug is that they have on their heads. You see them over in Jerusalem at the Wailing Wall, and they all have their heads covered. What does Jesus say about a man covering his head when he prays? He shouldn't do it! So much for the Truth of God and tradition.

...in which if I'm not mistaken included a grapefruit. After these four programs, every person can make up his or her own opinion about Jonathan Cahn, his teaching and agenda.

He said that he appreciated the message I gave; very good!

Let me clarify because I've got a little information given to during the break. Jonathan Cahn's Protestant connection, they do baptisms. However, in this book he never mentions it. He did an excellent job in two or three chapters defining how New York City is the center of all of this demonic outreach coming to America. It is true that whenever people leave God, Satan fills the vacuum! This is exactly what we are seeing happening in America!

I want to focus in on Jonathan Cahn's solution, and we will see the absence of the word repent! The absence of the blame also being upon each individual by the wrong use of their free moral agency, because we choose not to have anything to do with these demonic things. we also have to chose God's Way, and to repent!

excerpts from book: Return of the Gods by Jonathan Cahn
{OceanofPDF.com_the_Return_of_the_Gods_-Jonathan-Cahn.pdf}

He says that 'Jesus has succeeded in time all the ancient world and leaders up to this time.'

But that fact revealed a critical truth: He was, in the modern world, as much as He had been in the ancient, the only antidote to the gods—the only answer.

In other words, Yeshua is the only answer!

As it was in the ancient world, so too in the modern—in Him alone was the power to break their chains, pull down their strongholds, nullify their spells and curses, and set their captives free.

But he doesn't explain how that is done!

The Infinite Answer

So in order to achieve dominion, the gods had to separate nations, cultures, and civilizations from God—and also individuals. If one is separated from God, one is subject to the gods, to the powers of darkness.

That's a true statement!

But the power of Yeshua, Jesus, is the opposite. It is the power to end the separation, to remove everything that has separated us from God, starting with sin—as all have sinned.

He does not explain that sin is the transgression of the Law!

And a single sin is enough to create an infinite separation from the One who is infinitely good. And an infinite separation requires an infinite answer to bridge the gap. And so only an infinite life and an infinite love, the life and love of God given in Yeshua, in sacrifice on the cross, can fill the gap, end the separation, and bring reconciliation and redemption.

IF you're going to warn the world of how things are and how bad they are, THEN you must also give a complete solution!

But the other God is bent on heaven and eternal life. The message of salvation is that Yeshua, Jesus, bore your judgment so that you would never have to. And by that salvation, you are set free from all darkness, all sin, all judgment...

That's not quite true! That is only if you repent and are baptized! So, if he baptizes in the Protestant segment of his ministry, but keeps all the Jewish traditions in his Jewish ministry, then we have two masters: Judaism and Protestantism! What does God say about two masters? No one can serve two masters! He will either love the one and hate the other, either cleave to one and reject the other!

...And by that salvation, you are set free from all darkness, all sin, all judgment and all hell and given life, here and now and forever—heaven. It is the power to nullify the past, to end the old life, and to begin anew, to be born of God, born of heaven, born again.

All of those are catch-words that the Protestants always use! But if he doesn't explain it, his message is not complete. That's why I use the term: half-prophet.

The True God and How to Receive Him

There is no life so far from God that His mercy cannot reach it....

That's not a true statement unless there's repentance!

There is no sin one has committed that is so great that His forgiveness is not greater still...

Well, there's the unpardonable sin! He does not mention that!

...no bondage, no addiction, no chain so strong that it can withstand His power to break it; no past so defiled, so full of guilt and shame, that His power to redeem it is not still greater; and no darkness so dark that His love is not deeper still. He is the light that drives out all darkness, the hope that overcomes all hopelessness, the grace that washes away all sin, guilt, and shame, and the way that breaks open every wall and barrier and makes possible what was not....

That's a good mixture of words, but there are no Scriptures given to back it up to show you that he's preaching the Word of God! Can you make general statements to the public, and that brings them to the knowledge of God? That's the question!

...His arms are still open, and His love is calling. One only has to say yes to receive it, to receive Him.

- Why not have something about baptism?
- Why not have something about your own free moral agency involved in choosing these things?

We will see later how Jeremiah, a prophet of God, approached this.

How? It is as simple as opening one's heart and life to the love of God, to give Him one's sins and burdens, one's all, to receive Him into one's life, to let His presence come into one's heart, His light into the darkness, His forgiveness, His cleansing, His Word, His peace, His Spirit into every part of one's life, to turn away from all darkness, all sin, all idols, and all gods, to put one's faith in Yeshua, Jesus, as one's Lord and Savior, and to begin following Him as His disciple all the days of one's life.

That's a true thing, but why not have some Scriptures to show where it is in the Bible? If all that one does that reads this book and goes through the simple format of the Protestants, he's not saved!

There's no way!

It is as simple as making Him who is the only Lord the true Lord of your life, and Him who is the only true God the true God of your life.

Now, all of those are good words! Then he talks about overcoming the world! How can you overcome the world unless you have the Spirit of God? He calls it the power of God, which is true. But people need to have things specifically told to them. You can take these words and read something very similar to it in any psychology book.

IF you don't really come to Jesus His way with repentance and baptism, THEN you haven't come to Him at all!

Overcoming the World

The only way is by the power of God. It is only by His power that one can stand against the gods. It is only by His love that one can overcome all hatred. Only by His grace can one overcome all sin. Only by His hand can one break the chains of all bondage. And only by His light can one overcome the darkness of the age....

True! But how? Where? What do you do other than just think? other than just pray?

...And no matter how deep the darkness, the evil, or the odds, the light of God will be greater still. For God is far greater than the gods. And in God is the power to overcome the powers of the gods. And in His Spirit is the power to overcome the spirits of the age.

For in the days of the gods, one must never bow one's knee to any idol, any darkness, or any evil. In days of darkness the light must not waver or weaken but must grow stronger. And if the dark grows darker still, then the light must shine all the more brightly into it. And those who will not give up will, in the end, prevail.

Let's compare that with a couple of things that Jesus said. This is what it has to be! It cannot be a generalizing of Scripture without using the Scriptures. It's good he said that, but after reading it, how many people will say,

O Lord Jesus, enter into my life; I want you as my Lord and Savior, I repent of my sins.

- they know nothing else
- they don't have the Bible
- they have no one to teach them

How far will that go?

Mark 1:15: “And [Jesus] saying, ‘The time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is near at hand; repent and believe in the Gospel.’” Believe the Word of God!

- Did we hear that directly in this book? No!
- What did Peter say on the Day of Pentecost?
 - ✓ Repent of your sins and they will be forgiven!
 - ✓ Be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ!

That’s the first thing that has to come! This is what it is. Paul talks about this very thing, and you don’t find any language in the Bible like Jonathan Cahn’s language. It’s good words, those are expressing truth’s to a good degree, but not the way that Paul does. The first thing is those who have been afflicted:

1. must come to recognize their sins
2. must repent of their sins
3. must be baptized into the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit as Jesus said

Without baptism that way, there’s no receipt of the Holy Spirit! People may feel good, they may be uplifted for a while, be encouraged for a while, but it ends up like Paul coming to Ephesus.

Remember He came to Ephesus (Acts 19) and he found those who had been baptized and asked them if they received the Holy Spirit? They said, ‘We haven’t even heard that there’s such a thing as the Holy Spirit.’ Paul asked, ‘Unto what were you baptized?’ They said, ‘Unto John’s [the Baptist] baptism.’

John’s baptism was a precursor for Christ’s coming. But John did not have the power to give the Holy Spirit. So, what did Paul tell them? You need to be baptized into the name of Jesus and receive the Holy Spirit! So, Paul baptized them and laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit and ‘spoke in tongues.’

Here’s the key, and it is true that you have to give all your life to Jesus, but:

- What does that mean?
- What does it mean that Christ died for you?
- What does it mean that He took your sins?
- How did He take your sins?
- Why could it only be Him? Because He was the Lord God of the Old Testament Who created all mankind!

Romans 6:1: “What then shall we say? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may abound? MAY IT NEVER BE! We who died to sin...” (vs 1-2).

That’s a strong statement; that’s what it has to be, not just sorry that you’ve done something wrong, not just sorry that you got misled.

But Jonathan Cahn does not bring out that our own free choices can keep us from these evil things. Then with the power of God’s Spirit, we can overcome, be converted and prepare for the Kingdom of God. So, Paul says, “We who died to sin...”

How do you die to sin? That’s what needs to be in this book, but it’s not!

“...how shall we live any longer therein? Or are you ignorant that we, as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus, were baptized into His death?” (vs 2-3).

In order for the death of Jesus Christ to pay for your sins, and forgive them, you must be baptized into His death! That’s what’s important. So, if you’re going to warn people, especially Christians who have the Word of God, the Bible, that they need to know how important baptism is, and keeping the commandments is. Because if you don’t do that, you don’t have anything to fight the gods, or demons!

Verse 4: “Therefore, we were buried with Him through the baptism into the death...”

The sacrifice of Christ is applied personally to everyone at baptism! But if you don’t have baptism...

I think that it’s not really helping the people to bring up about baptism in his book, but he baptizes in his Protestant segment of what he does. I question, does he really baptize with the Jewish segment? Possibly he does! I don’t know!

“...so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, in the same way, we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been conjoined together in the likeness of His death...” (vs 4-5).

See how important that is? That’s a real important thing! We will read something in Revelation in just a minute: How that there are some in the Church of God who are not converted! In other words, their baptism was not valid if they were baptized. They need to be baptized again (Acts 19).

Verse 6: “Knowing this... [this is what we are to completely understand]: ...that our old man was co-crucified with Him in order that the body of sin might be destroyed, so that we might no longer be enslaved to sin.

That's the whole purpose! It makes you wonder how many Protestants have the Spirit of God with them, but not in them! Having the Spirit of God with you is one thing; having the Spirit of God within you is completely different!

Revelation 3:15—the Church of Laodicea: “I know your works... [God always looks to your works] ...that you are neither cold nor hot... [Does that not explain Protestantism to a tea?] ...I would that you be either cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and are neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of My mouth” (vs 15-16).

In other words, it's not going to happen the way that Jonathan Cahn says in his simple solution unless there is baptism after repentance.

Verse 17: “For you say, ‘I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’; and you do not understand that you are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked. I counsel you to buy from Me gold purified by fire so that you may be rich; and white garments so that you may be clothed...” (vs 17-18)—the righteousness of God, which is commandment-keeping!

That shows they are not keeping the commandments the way that they should.

“...and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and to anoint your eyes with eye salve, so that you may see” (v 18).

Notice the next couple of verses, because this reveals some very important things:

Verse 19: “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore, be zealous and repent.”

That's what Jonathan Cahn's message should be! Repent!

Verse 20: “Behold, I stand at the door and knock.... [We will see that's the door of your mind] ...If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come into him, and will sup with him, and he with Me.”

That's means they don't have the Spirit of God within them! So, they have to repent so they can receive the Spirit of God. Jonathan Cahn needs to bring them to real repentance.

Psa. 106 is a very interesting Psalm, which talks about Israel, and we need to remember that God is judging all the nations all the time (Jer. 18), and he knows the thoughts of every man that He needs to know at anytime He needs to know without any problem.

Psalm 106:33: “Because they [Israel] provoked his spirit so that he spoke rashly with his lips. They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them” (vs 33-34).

There was a reason that God said to eliminate them! To not be where all the demons are with those who were in the land.

Verse 35: “But [they] mingled themselves among the nations and learned their works. And they served their idols, which were a snare to them. Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons” (vs 35-37).

Remember that God's judgment is coming upon us! One of the main reasons is abortion—62-million firstborn, and others! That blood is going to be judged upon this nation! That's the thing that Jonathan Cahn really does not bring out. He eludes to it many times, but he doesn't say: the hand of God is judging us because of all the slaughter of the unborn!

Verse 38: “And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; and the land was polluted with blood. And they were defiled with their works, and went a whoring after their own inventions” (vs 38-39)

Look at all the inventions that we have today. We have so many things, gadgets that people have no time for God!

Verse 40: “Therefore, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people, and He abhorred His own inheritance.”

Let's see how they responded, and I think Psa, 78 describes very adequately what Jonathan Cahn's message will do. I might just add that a lot of people think if we can just get through to the election in 2024, and Donald Trump is elected, our problems will be solved! No, because the problems lie with the people!

Psalm 78:31: “The wrath of God came upon them and killed the strongest of them, and struck down the chosen men of Israel. For all this they still sinned and did not believe in His wonderful works” (vs 31-32).

- Is abortion still a problem today?
- Are they still killing children today?

You need to understand how God looks at that!

Verse 33: “Therefore, He ended their days in vanity and their years in terror. When He slew them...” (vs 33-34).

You need to listen to this, this is true, this is what's happening again today, just like it is here in the Word of God. Know this for sure, whenever God's Word is spoken in Truth, whether it be instruction or prophecy, it is true! It doesn't make the person who speaks it a prophet! But God is the Prophet speaking His words! These are His words, so when they're read it's the same as God talking to us!

Verse 34: "When He slew them..."

- Do we have that today?
- Not only abortion, but all murders in the cities?
- All the deaths because of Covid?
- All the problems that we're having?

"...then they sought Him... [here they're seeking God] ... and they turned back and sought after God earnestly. And they remembered that God was their Rock, and the Most High God was their Redeemer. Nevertheless...(vs 34-36). Even after that!

How much of an acknowledgement of God does this nation need to come to, to lift the hand of His judgment? Only God can answer that question!

Verse 36: "Nevertheless, they flattered Him with their mouths, and they lied to Him with their tongues."

- Isn't that so?
- Who does all the lying?
- Who causes all the lawlessness?
- We've read that how many times?
 - ✓ the people
 - ✓ the religious teachers
 - ✓ the politicians

All combined!

Where did Jonathan Cahn tell them to stop their sinning, Sunday-keeping and keep the Sabbath? He's got one foot in Judaism, one foot in Protestantism, and prophecies from both of them! How much help he does, I don't know! But every one of his revivals has fizzled! Why? Because:

- he doesn't people to truly repent to God
- he doesn't tell them that they need to be baptized
- he doesn't tell them that they need to keep the Sabbath, as well as the other commandments

So, we'll look at it! He's somewhere between a half-prophet and to some: false prophet.

Verse 36: "Nevertheless, they flattered Him with their mouths, and they lied to Him with their tongues. For their heart was not steadfast with Him; neither were they faithful in His covenant" (vs 36-37).

The only reprieve can come is if there are enough who turn to God, then God may give a little reprieve. Don't look to any politician or religious leader, you have to look to God!

Here's in Isa. 55 is what Jonathan Cahn should have in his book. If it's going to be effective and cause people to turn to God, to get away from all the demons that are flooding the nation because of our sins. It's right there in the Old Testament, which is New Testament doctrine.

Isaiah 55:1: "Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money come, buy and eat. ... [we'll see that because of repentance] ...Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend money for what is not bread? And your labor for what never satisfies? Hearken diligently to Me..." (vs 1-2).

- Why couldn't Jonathan Cahn say that?
- Why don't you hearken diligently to the Word of God?

Cahn says to come to God, but he doesn't tell them what to do!

"...and eat what is good... [the Word of God] ...and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Bow down your ear, and come to Me; hear..." (vs 2-3).

- What are you going to hear? The words of God, the words of Jesus Christ!
- What did Jesus say? The first words out of His mouth to begin His ministry was REPENT and believe the Gospel!

The first message of the Apostles at the temple when they received the Holy Spirit was repent of your sins and receive the Holy Spirit!

Cahn has done a good job explaining all the problems, but he failed miserably in bringing what substantively needs to be done! If you do that:

"...and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given Him for a witness to the people, a Prince and Commander of people" (vs 3-4).

Verse 6: "Seek the LORD while He may be found..." That's what should be in that message, call upon Him while He's near!

Verse 7: Let the wicked forsake his way... [Cahn said that, but in an offhanded way] ...and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the LORD, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon."

He almost did that by saying ‘there’s no sin that so great that can’t be forgiven.’

Verse 8: “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways My ways,’ says the LORD. ‘For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts” (vs 8-9).

- Isn’t that an amazing statement?
- What does God have in mind for those who love God (1-Cor. 2)? The eye has not seen, the ear has not heard what God has prepared for those who love Him!

Verse 10: “For as the rain comes down, and the snow from the heavens, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My Word be which goes out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall certainly do what I sent it to do” (vs 10-11).

That’s what needs to be! We are at a critical point with this nation, a very critical point! The hand of God is there. Will He lift His hand even a little bit?

- It depends on the people!
- It depends on the leaders in the so-called Christian churches!
- It depends on making every person responsible for his or her own sins! That they must come to God His way!

Let’s see what this repentance has to be; it can’t be a flattering to God again. Here’s what kind of repentance it needs to be, because now we are in an all out effort just to try and survive in this nation. There are many forces working against us that can bring whatever God’s judgment upon us at any minute! Jonathan Cahn should have said:

God knows your thoughts, and you need to turn from your evil! You need to repent of what you are doing!

Since Cahn is so well known, he could say:

Starting with Pres. Biden and all the Cabinet, Congress, governors, all the leaders in the land! God is calling you to repentance, that you come to Him and seek Him, with this kind of repentance.

Joel 2:12: “‘Therefore, even now,’ says the LORD...” This is what God wants:

No more mealy-mouthed asking the Lord to come into your heart. He’s not going to come into your heart until you repent! He is not going to give His Spirit to you in your heart and mind until you are baptized!

“...turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning” (v 12).

God wants to see the people; let this be preached in every Sunday-keeping church and may the pastor, minister or speaker have enough courage of God’s Word to tell the congregation:

Because we’re repenting, we’re repenting of breaking the Sabbath, repenting of keeping His Holy Days. Next week we will not have services on Sunday, you all come on the Sabbath, which is Saturday!

Do you think there would be any of that? No! If Jonathan Cahn tried that he would lose all of his Protestant connections and money! They would declare him as asking them to Judaize! The Jews would not be happy with all the Gentiles keeping the Sabbath.

- they have to give up their idols, whatever they are
- they have to give up all abortion everywhere
- they have to establish law to take care of the lawless who are sent against us as punishment because of our lawlessness against God

That’s where we are in America!

Verse 13: “Yes, rend your heart and not your garments, and return to the LORD your God: for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and He repents of the evil.”

Isa, 56—this follows up on seeking God that we read in Isa. 55. This is what it needs to be. Now is not the time for half solutions! Now is not the time for mealy-mouthed renditions of the Word of God. The hand of God’s punishment is going to come! Watch the next two sessions of Church at Home, because I explain there very clearly that we’re in such desperate shape that the prophecies of Ezekiel with the encirclement of doom is going to happen!

Isaiah 56:1: “Thus says the LORD, ‘Keep justice and do righteousness... [not all of you compromising political solutions leading to more confusion] ...for My salvation is near to come, and My righteousness to be revealed.”

If you want the blessing from God when you repent, here’s what He requires:

Verse 2: “Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.”

That’s what God expects! That’s what God expects from all of His Churches! No more halfway measures! This nation is ready to collapse! If there is not some sort of repentance, like the Bible shows, the heavy hand of God is going to come and it is going to be an encirclement of doom, death, destruction and mayhem that the world has not seen in a long time! All because we turned our backs on God! So, Jonathan Cahn was right in that!

We’ll give him credit for all the good things that he said, but he needs to go the extra mile with God! He needs to come all the way toward God, toward the Jews that he pastors, and toward the Protestants that he pastors.

He could set the stage if he did in the way that it could be done. God would recognize that if there were thousands and thousands of people who would follow the Word of God and do it! Then maybe His hand would be lifted for a while!

But the judgment of the blood of the murder of the innocent unborn: 62-million, 20% of the population of America! His hand will not be held back from that very long! This is where we are!

Jonathan Cahn, I hope someone sends this message to you and I hope you listen to it! I hope that you get yourself into the Word of God and the things that you need to do, because you’re well-known! You could help people come to God in a right and direct way! But you yourself need to come to God in complete repentance of the things that you’re doing that are contrary to the Word of God, and come to Him in reality! Preach God’s Word in Truth and power!

Then maybe there can be some sparing of the misery that we’re facing! Let’s hope that you, Jonathan Cahn, can become a full and complete prophet of God by fully using His Word straight from the Scriptures! Amen!
